

Cocktails For A Cause raises money for Rock County Cancer Coalition

- Emily Ness Dec 5, 2021 Updated Dec 10, 2021

BELOIT (WKOW) -- Beloit restaurant-goers are raising their glasses all December long in honor of Cocktails for a Cause.

The initiative was organized by Geronimo Hospitality Group.

Through it, area restaurants work with Tito's Handmade Vodka to raise money for Rock County Cancer Coalition. This organization provides financial assistance to community members living in Rock County who are battling cancer.

Lucky's Burger Bar is one of half a dozen restaurants participating.

Assistant manager Calvin Coleman explained that Tito's is donating $1.00 for every Tito's cocktail sold, up to $3,000.

"A lot of people have definitely taken a liking to the drinks," Coleman said. "The Grinch's Christmas punch. That's my favorite one. That's the one I've been advocating for."

The initiative will go until December 31st.

The following Beloit restaurants are participating:

- Lucy's #7 Burger Bar
- Bessie's Diner
- Merrill & Houston's Steak Joint
- Velvet Buffalo Modern Italian
- The Rooftop at Hotel Goodwin
- Beloit Club