

Beckord made executive director at Rock County Cancer Coalition

• Sep 22, 2021

Lucy Beckord joined the Rock County Cancer Coalition as the new executive director. She will manage the affairs of the organization, including fundraising activities and grant writing.

“One of my goals is to raise the profile of the organization so more people know about the important assistance we provide to families here in Rock County,” Beckord said in a news release.

For two years, Beckord has been a volunteer board member of the coalition’s board of directors. She has previously worked at Blackhawk Community Credit Union, Kutter Harley Davidson and owned Lucy’s Loon Lake Coffee and Deli.
